

Spouse Education Fund (SEF) 2018 Announcement & Eligibility Requirements

Now in its 31st year, The Spouse Education Fund offers grants of $100 to $500 to enable international spouses to take advantage of academic, personal and professional development opportunities. The grants are intended to provide spouses with encouragement and financial support.

ELIGIBILITY

Applicants must be spouse/partners of current Stanford international students, post-docs and certain visiting scholars. The spouses/partners of Stanford employees are not eligible. In addition, neither the applicant nor the spouse can hold American citizenship. Grants are intended for spouses on F-2 and J-2 visas. We regret that this year, due to increased interest, we can only accept applications from those who have not received grants in the past.

CRITERIA

Grant award criteria includes financial need, as well as relevance, future impact and motivation.
